LACE IS AGAIN A WINNER

RAL PARR'S TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY RUNS CLOSE TO RECORD AT PIMLICO.

Waterloo Makes His First Appearance of the Season and Is Beaten by Bob R. Through Lack of Condition.

Baltimore, Md., May 1.—Ral Parr's Fatherless—Network filly, Lace, showed a good performance in the Brudenell Park purse, one of the feature events at Pimlico this afternoon, when she ran away from a band of the best youngsters in training here. Lace led from start to finish and ran the four and a half furlongs in 54.2, which was within one-fifth of a second of the track record for the distance. Today's victory marked Lace's second start and second win. In today's race she left the barrier with great speed and, after racing cleanly to defeat in the first furlong, she drew away and won with something to spare. Spring Maid, which finished second, came from the rear division with a great rush in the homestretch.

August Belmont's good racer, Waterloo, made his first effort of the season in the Oriole Handicap, a dash of seven furlongs, as a well backed favorite. He was ridden by C. White, and showed a great turn of speed for five furlongs. Then lack of condition told and he weakened so that Bob R. was able to beat him a couple of lengths. Martin W. Littleton, second choice in the race, was put out of the running after they had gone three furlongs. Jockey Wilson attempted to squeeze through on the inside and in doing so was thrown against the fence with great force and fell. When Martin W. Littleton hit the fence he broke two of the ribs and injured his shoulder and it was with some difficulty that he was led to his stable. Wilson was fortunate in escaping unhurt, aside from a shaking up. Favorites won the first four races. Queen Bee, with a long string of recent victories to her credit, again earned brackets when she galloped away from her opposition in the opener, and old Hercolod, which came back from a long absence and won five straight races after being retired for several years, proved an easy winner of the Elk Ridge Steeplechase over the two-mile course.

Jockey Tommy McTaggart, who has been riding a good form, was forced to cancel his engagements this afternoon. McTaggart was taken sick on the road while reducing, but will probably be in condition to resume riding tomorrow.

A cablegram was received at the track this afternoon which brought the news that Herman R. Duryea had won the Two Thousand Guineas in England with his good three-year-old, Sweeper II, which colt is also a candidate for the Epson Derby.

James Rowe shipped the following two-year-olds from Brookdale Farm to Albert Simons on Sunday: Barnegat, b. g., by Broomstick—Jersey Lightning; Buskin, b. g., by Hamburg—Slippers; Friolee, b. f., by Burgomaster—Lady Frivoles; Morning Glory, b. f., by Disguise—Dorset Flower; Sandhog, br. g., by Burgomaster—Sandia; Sweet Story, ch. f., by Hamburg—Sally of Navarre.

Tankard, ch. g., by Burgomaster—Tanya; Tumble, ch. f., by Burgomaster—Flip Flap.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A. L. Hassard—Short, a New York handicapper and turf writer, committed suicide yesterday by inhaling gas. He was 57 years of age.

Clarence H. Mackay has presented his famous stallion, Banastar, to Squadron C. farm in New York for breeding purposes. Banastar's greatest turf triumph was scored in the Brooklyn Handicap of 1899, when Danny Maher got him to the finish in front of Lanky Bob and Pilgrimage. It was Banastar that was left at the post in a subsequent Saratoga after an hour of disorderly conduct for which Maher received a suspension.

Capt. W. F. Pregrave, one of Maryland's leading horsemen, sat in the Pimlico Club office and commented on the horses stabled at the track. He said: "There are many two-year-olds stabled here. There are also a number at Lexington, Ky. The quantity would lead one to believe that thoroughbred breeding was again in flower. Such is not the case. The collection of the youngsters at the only two points where they can be tried out makes it appear so. If there were racing at other courses, the youngsters would be spread about instead of being concentrated, and the showing on the two courses would not be so great numerically."—Baltimore Sun.

IMPROVEMENTS AT FORT ERIE.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 1.—Stakes to be decided during the Niagara Racing Association's two meetings, June 29 to July 6, and July 27 to August 3, will close next Saturday, May 4. The list of stakes is attractive. Eight valuable fixtures are offered, four for the first meeting and four for the second. In addition to the stakes there will be liberal purses and overnight events.

Many improvements are being made at the Fort Erie track. The old paddock, the most spacious on the Canadian circuit, is being converted into a betting shed where the layers will be made comfortable, a new paddock is being erected just west of the present one, a new barn is in course of erection, and a bridge connecting the grandstand and paddock is being built.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Jack P., Indianapolis, Ind. Place betting on Helene in race 2052 lost.

J. W. M., Indianapolis, Ind. Princess Callaway was well backed to show in her race at Lexington last Saturday.

S. J., Chicago. The wager on the E. R. Bradley entry in the race won by Oriental Pearl was a draw. Bradley having sold Oriental Pearl and having no starter in the race.

R. M., St. Louis, Mo. Bad spelling affords no good reason for refusing to pay a bet where the bettor's purpose is plain. Having accepted the bet it should be paid on in full.

JIM BASEY TAKES THE HANDICAP.

Beats Enfield and Other Good Sprinters in Feature Race at Alan.

Spokane, Wash., May 1.—Showers fell this morning, but when the horses went to the post at Alan for the Pend d'Oreille Handicap, the fourth race, the track was fast. Jim Basey, the winner, broke rapidly away from the post and opened a long lead, but had all he could do at the finish to stall off the gallant bid made by the favorite, Enfield, which broke slowly and was far out of the running in the early stages. He moved up gamely, but was inclined to bear out in the last furlong. Flying Footsteps, which received strong support, looked dangerous at the paddock gate, but weakened in the final hundred yards.

F. J. Grefer's Sidon, winner of the second race, was well supported by his stable connections and had little trouble in disposing of his opposition.

Jockeys Forsythe and J. Hanover, who came west with the stable of H. G. Bedwell, will soon be in action here.

Phikola, a stake winner in the east, died here this morning from congestion of the kidneys. He belonged to Ed Alvey and was brought west by J. C. Ferriss.

Jockey C. Ross was fined $25 by the judges for rough riding in the sixth race.

Secretary Frank W. Smith of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association estimated the opening day attendance at 4,500. That looks like prosperity for the turf in the northwest.

GOSSIP OF THE KING'S PLATE.

Toronto, Ont., May 1.—There is a strong disposition abroad to discredit Amherst's chances in the Plate, writes Francis Nelson in the Globe. She is the only one that has been backed to any extent, yet there are offers to back this and that horse against her, and even at good odds, to wager that she will not be in the money. No good ground can be found for such opposition, and her owner and his friends have never missed a chance to show their faith in her. Other horses in the Plate, Hersey and Tropeolium, for instance, showed a faster mile last fall than Amherst, but she has done all that was wanted of her, and her people have expressed their faith in her in the way that is understood around the world—by putting down their money. Her best mile last fall was 1:45.2 at Woodbine, while the Dymont pair, named above, did 1:43.0 on the sandy track at Brookdale Farm. Thus, none of the Platers have this year been a mile as fast as they showed as two-year-olds. Not that the winner of the Plate is indicated by the fastest work of the previous autumn. St. Bass worked a mile only once as a two-year-old and that was in 1:45.2. But he ran the first mile of the race today following in 1:42 and won the Plate in the record time of 2:08.4.

It is in just such a year as this that the winner of the King's Plate may come from a totally unexpected quarter. There is not among the twenty horses which race today likely starters a single outstanding figure, and not a thing is known about their capabilities today that was not a matter of knowledge last fall. They have come through the intervening months satisfactorily, and have made the normal improvement to the fact that they are much older. Before going into winter quarters some of them worked as well as desired or expected by their trainers, while others were not equal to the task that is supposed to indicate their possibilities in the future. Mr. St. Bass's Rustling gave probably the best performance of any, and she ran last once. In company with some of the best two-year-olds on the Canadian circuit she held her position safe as far as she was in condition to run against seasoned horses. Her position will be the great deciding factor in the mile and a quarter race on the eighteenth of May, and that is a rather elusive thing. With such a brief period of preparation as is allowed this year the Plate may be won by a horse that could not be in the first half dozen were the race run a few weeks later. We need not go back far in the record of the race to find instances of that, and condition accounts for most of the surprises of the last twenty years. Some horses which were today likely starters, and do not show it until actually in the race, with the result that their trainers are the most surprised of the spectators. Nor is this remarkable with horses that have never been most of them, at least—over a distance of ground at each pace.

The mare nominated by Dr. Septimas Thompson of London in the King's Plate has been recorded and registered as Phillis. Phillis is new to the race course, though now seven years old. She is a thoroughbred that Dr. Thompson has used as a back, and which he has used to follow. She is a well-made and well-bred mare, and should win races whatever the outcome of her Plate effort. Phillis is by the Longfellow stallion Philosophy, brought over by Dr. Fitzgerald of London some years ago, and which was a successful sire of half-bred and show horses in that part of the country. Yellow Jacket II, her dam, is by imported Whistle Jacket, son of Hermit, from Charity, by Sensation. Charity was also the dam of Widow's Mite.

Trainer Jim Clay is coming on as a handler of King's Platers, and this spring has in charge three candidates for the guineas, belonging to different owners. Knowl, a six-year-old mare from St. Thomas, had but little training before she came here, but has a good turn of speed, and is said to have worked half a mile better than in 50 seconds over the half-mile track at home last fall. Her breeding is quite up to the standard of winning a Plate. Kangaroo, her sire, now dead, was a young horse by Hamburg, from the imported mare Cock-crow. She was by Priar's Balsam—Irony, dam of Yumple, and granddam of Flying Fox. Crocus Knowl's dam was by the Scottish Chief horse, imported Kantaka, and one of her progeny, Wildflower II, was in the Plate a few years ago.

Irene Sweeney is the property of a King's Plate enthusiast. Though Mr. Sweeney has yet had nothing encouraging to his prospects of finding a winner, he means to keep on. This year his candidate is the four-year-old filly Irene Sweeney, which ran twice last year without getting in the money. She is by Kapang Horse, and her dam Bonnie Farm, was by Versatile, from Nancy Lee, who was also the dam of Kelvin.

The third of the Platers in the Clay stable, Mr. J. Young's Bon Toi, is a three-year-old, bred at the Valley Farm, but by Mr. Davies' Melrose station. Miles d'Or, her dam, Sugar Plum, is of the sweetly-named family that included Butterscotch, Maple Sugar, Plum Tart and Golden Syrup, all coming from old Bon Bon. Bon Toi has had no racing experience.

Recent work-outs at Woodbine:

Amberite—Three-quarters in 12.2, 25.2, 38.2, 53.2, 1:07.2, 1:22.2.

DERBY DAY CROWD WILL BE BIG.

Reservations for Accommodations at Louisville Hotels Reflect Interest in Churchill Downs Racing.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—The reservations already made with the various hotels in this city indicate that the largest crowd that ever visited Louisville during a race meeting will be on hand when the Derby is decided at Churchill Downs on Saturday, May 11. These reservations are by no means all coming from horsemen. They represent prominent citizens from many of the greatest cities of the country. St. Louis has spoken for quarters for a large delegation and so has Chicago, while a month ago some of the choicest apartments were reserved at the leading houses for race loving millionaires from New York.

Interest is intense in the great event of the opening day—the Kentucky Derby—to be run at the Downs. Even if The Manager should fail to go to the post, the appearance of Worth and Sonada under colors that day will alone be sufficient of an attraction. Fitted against these two cracks will be other good three-year-olds. With a fast track, it is likely to be a record Derby race, as it is no secret that the Hallenbeck stable people believe that if Worth is beaten, Meridian's time of 2:05 for the mile and a quarter will be reduced.

Second in interest only to the Kentucky Derby will be the meeting in the Bashford Manor stakes of the unbeaten Hawthorn and Forward, the star of the Charleston winter meeting. The admirers of the latter are strong in the belief that he will outpace the son of Hastings, as they claim he is as fast a two-year-old in getting away from the barrier as was ever saddled. Those who stand by the marvelous record of Hawthorn think no two-year-old in training can beat him and they say that if Forward will get him at the finish and beat him like all other horses he has met, Fred Luzader—and there is no better judge of a good horse than the Wainwright trainer—says Hawthorn is simply another Colin and that it is foolish to race a colt like Forward after him at all. It is universally known that many of the good two-year-olds have been virtually ruined by trying to beat a horse far superior to them in class. It is maintained in some quarters that the western turf public have not seen a colt of the age of Hawthorn which compared to him since El Rio Rey, that unbeaten wonder of California.

But the Derby and the meeting here of the great two-year-olds will not be the whole attraction at the Downs this spring. The Clark Handicap will bring together the Kentucky Derby winner of 1911, Meridian, J. W. Schorn's Star Charter, Ocean Bond, Cherryola, Granite, Fashion Plate, T. M. Green, High Private and other good horses.

The two other great attractions of the meeting will be the historic Ashland Oaks, with a history as long as that of the Derby, and the ever popular Gentlemen's Cup race, which will bring together Louisville's best representation of amateur riders, some of whom are capable horsemen.

Two local tracks were worked to any extent, but only two Derby candidates worked to any extent, they being George J. Long's Nicias and Free Lance. The former cantered three furlongs in :42, while Free Lance went a mile in 1:49.2, covering the first quarter in :25.2, the half in :52, five furlongs in 1:05.2, three-quarters in 1:18.2, and seven furlongs in 1:33. He cantered out the mile and an eighth in 2:05. While the time was not essentially fast, it was regarded as extra good work, as the colt ran much wider turns than is usual in such trials. Free Lance is an improved colt and local trainers think that as far as he goes he will be a keen contender in the Derby this year.

Many horses worked today at the Downs. The best trials were:

C. H. Patten—Half mile in 55.2; cantering.
Captain Bravo—Five-eighths in 1:08.

Fiel—Half mile in 52.2.
Fighting Hope—Quarter mile in 27.2; cantering.
Fireman—Three-quarters in 1:27, cantering.

The Royal Prince—Three-quarters in 1:18.

J. E. Otto reached here today with four horses, fresh from Charleston afflicted with lung fever. Little Dab was by Cesarion—Fatty, by Kingston, and a half-brother to Aristocracy, a winner of the Saratoga Special. The latter died at the Downs some years ago from a similar affliction, he then being a member of J. E. Otto's stable.

Frank Gering, Sr., had the misfortune to lose his two-year-old chestnut colt, Little Dab, which came here from Charleston afflicted with lung fever. Little Dab was by Cesarion—Fatty, by Kingston, and a half-brother to Aristocracy, a winner of the Saratoga Special. The latter died at the Downs some years ago from a similar affliction, he then being a member of J. E. Otto's stable.

T. Collins, owner of Bourbon Beau, wrote his trainer here today upon receiving information that Dr. C. Cahn thought the great four-year-old would in time race again advising that every care be taken of the son of Star Shoot and that he did not care if two years should elapse before he again raced. Mr. Collins fears that his business in New York will keep him away from the local meeting this spring. Bourbon Beau will be kept at the Downs until he is able to walk to some local farm and then he will be turned out.

Louisville has a new addition to the turf in George Bright, a wealthy young man. He bought today from trainer J. Hoffman the good two-year-old brown filly, Ella Crane, by Pilgrimage—Ella Duke. Ella Crane was raced successfully at Charleston and is engaged in the Debutante and Juvenile Stakes here.

Lackrose, which has been on the alling list with indignation for about a week, has recovered and will soon work again.

J. H. Mend returned to the Downs today from Lexington with Chapultepec, John Louis and Salati. He found track conditions unsuitable to any of the horses he shipped there last week.

The schooling barrier is now up at the Downs in charge of Charles Nulte and after ten o'clock each

SPRITE WINS, WORTH BEATEN

H. K. KNAPP'S CRACK FILLY IS WINNER OF ASHLAND OAKS AT LEXINGTON.

Finds It Easy to Beat Azyade and Other Stars of Her Age and Sex—Worth Loses to Grover Hughes in Overnight Handicap.

Lexington, Ky., May 1.—Under conditions that could not be excelled, patrons of the Kentucky Association were treated to some brilliant sport this afternoon. Some of the topnotch racers of the country were among those striving for supremacy. The racing feature was the renewal of the one-time famous Ashland Oaks, which brought out among others the two crack fillies, Sprite and Azyade. The former looked the part of a real Oaks candidate and clearly demonstrated that she is without a peer among her sex in this part of the country at least. There is a question if any of the much-heralded Derby cracks can take her measure. She was put to a hard test, considering it was her first effort for the season and the race should improve her. The speedy Azyade forced a fast pace during the early stages, but Sprite, after recovering from interference with which she met on the first turn, raced in close proximity to the leader and when called on dashed past her, ultimately to win easing up. Azyade displayed the high flight of speed that characterized her performance of last season and held the others safe, taking second place handily from Lady Lightning, which in turn finished in advance of Ursula Emma.

Lexington's running of the Ashland Oaks was the first renewal since 1896, when it was won by Myrtle Harkness with Bracegirdle (dam of The Manager) second. The net value of today's event was $1,494.50. Sprite's last start prior to her victory today was in the memorable $10,000 sweepstakes in which she was defeated a length and a half by Worth, October 24 last, at Latonia. Had she been meeting Worth today she probably would have turned the tables on him.

Worth made his first appearance as a three-year-old in the six furlongs handicap that immediately preceded the running of the Ashland Oaks, and he was defeated by J. M. Barber's sturdy little year-old Grover Hughes, that on more than one occasion has shown his heels to the higher-priced racers of the weather owners. Coming into the stretch, Shilling called upon Worth urgently, but the Hallenbeck Derby candidate could not deliver the goods. Worth came back limping slightly, but a half hour later, while he was picking grass in the paddock, he did not show any indication of trouble of any sort.

Worth's showing today was a disappointment to the critical racing public and not up to the standard expected of a favorite for the Kentucky Derby, but before conservative horsemen pass final judgment on him, they are anxious to note his performance in the Blue Grass Stakes next Saturday. Compared with Worth's race today, Sonada's performance of yesterday was sparkling and the latter was in favor tonight with many horsemen as likely to carry off the rich Louisville prize.

The Hallenbeck stable took its first purse of the season when Prince Gal won the opener, for which he was an overwhelming favorite.

C. C. Van Meter's Marta Santa—Praise colt, Nobly, furnished the surprise of the fifth race by winning after having shown the whole of the entire running. Senator James, the favorite, brought up the rear. F. R. Hitchcock sent to the post in this race a good-looking youngster in Obsession and he showed a flash of early speed, but retired in the stretch as if short of work.

W. G. Yanke contemplates a visit to the Canadian tracks this summer and will probably ship his horses to Fort Erie toward the close of the Latonia meeting. His horses Gillyg, Oakland and Jupiter Joe, which have been turned out at J. D. Cars's farm, will have the firing iron applied to their legs tomorrow. They will be campaigned during the late summer and on the Kentucky tracks in the fall.

C. Casey, owner of Cracker Box, considered by many as a dangerous factor for the Kentucky Derby, notified Fred Gerhardt this morning of his horse's breakdown and requested that his entries made at stakes at several Canadian tracks be withdrawn. Mr. Casey did not say to what extent the colt had suffered, but it is thought that he will not be a starter in the Kentucky Derby.

Jockey Shilling, after dismounting from Worth, said: "They are through beating Worth from now on. He claimed that the colt was short and that he 'cooled' badly on his return to the scales. He pulled up limping and sore, but walked out of it after getting to his stable."

W. Dale, who had the mount on Pirate Diana, formerly was a star rider around the Fair Grounds at St. Louis. It is over six years since he was counted with the top notchers.

Jockey Allen was slightly injured about the leg when he lost control of Ethel Samson going to the first turn, and permitted the filly to bolt into the fence.

Jockey Shilling was guilty of a flagrant breach in the Ashland Oaks when he cut sharply across with Azyade and interfered with Sprite badly. The judges overlooked the incident.

J. B. Campbell will leave for Louisville tomorrow in the interest of the Fort Erie Stakes that close next Saturday.

The following jockeys have been engaged to ride in the Breeders' Futurity tomorrow: Brookfield, Ganz, Bunch of Keys, J. Callahan, My Genie, Loftus, Helios, Moleworth, Christmas Star, C. H. Shilling, Foundation, T. Koerner, Solar Star, Goose, White Heather, C. Peak, Forward, Byrne.

The track was in good condition this morning and trainers took advantage of the opportunity to give their charges some fast preliminaries. Among the best works were the following:

Any Port—Half mile in 49.2.
Bad News—Mile in 1:45.2.
Be—Mile in 1:46.2.
Buckhorn—Seven-eighths in 1:33, handily.
Elizabeth Harwood—Half mile in 49.2.
Floral Day—Mile in 1:47.2.
Flying Feet—Mile in 1:44.
Forward—Three-eighths in 35.2.
Foundation—Three-eighths in 37.
Jabot—Mile in 1:44.2.
Joe Deibold—Mile in 1:48.2.
Polls—Seven-eighths in 1:32.2.
Rossina—Three-quarters in 1:18.
Tirzina—Mile in 1:47.2.

morning all the youngsters are educated in getting away from the post.

Capt. J. H. Reese, for years one of the most prominent racing officials in the country, passed through Louisville yesterday on his way from Pittsburgh to Memphis on a business trip. Captain Reese will return here to see the Kentucky Derby run. He has not missed seeing one of these great races in years. Captain Reese was for a number of years secretary of the famous Montgomery Park track at Memphis and has served as presiding judge at some of the most important race meetings in the West. While engaged now in other business ventures, he still takes a great interest in racing and believes that in a few years it will be generally revived with the pari-mutuel system of betting.
